LINEWORK MEET

Video meetings inside your chats, like Zoom: everyone in the chat can join from the meeting card or a link.

START A MEETING

- 1 Open a chat or group and tap the Meet icon at the top.
- 2 Confirm Start a Linework meeting?: everyone in the chat sees the meeting card and can join without being called.
- 3 People outside the chat can join with the link `linework.app/meet/...`.

PLANS

Plans are paid from your wallet in vUSDC or vLWK, and are also sold in the Linework Store on Bloop. Renewing early adds a year from the current expiry. What counts is the plan of the person who starts the meeting.

DURING THE MEETING

- Gallery view (6 people per page) or speaker view.
- Microphone, camera, share screen, participants, reactions, raise hand, leave.
- The host can mute everyone or one person, remove someone, lock the meeting, record (everyone is told; the video is posted in the chat) and end it for everyone.

SUBTITLES AND TRANSLATED VOICE

Tap Subtitles and choose your language among the 7: what people say appears translated on your screen. With Translated voice your phone reads the translated sentences aloud (try it with Test the voice). The audio of the meeting is sent to a transcription service. Subtitles need the host to have the written-translation add-on.
